* To certify the European levels B1, B2 & C1 the TOEIC test is recommended

Bridge test results also come with a score (0-3) for learners strategies which denote how the learner applies his/her competences (the hinge between competence and performance).

* The TOEIC Bridge test covers the competences from the A1 level to the B1 level as described on the Common European Framework (CEF) - a maximum score on the TOEIC Bridge indicates the threshold for an independent/intermediate user has been reached.
